

Mauro Travel & Tours

"Where Travel is with a Purpose"

2255 Glades Road
Suite 324A, PMB 1007,
Boca Raton, FL 33431
Tel: 561-477-8700
Fax: 561-477-8811
Email: regina@maurotravel.com

11 DAY TOUR OF ISRAEL - All the Essentials

Day 1 - The Adventure Begins

On the first day you'll depart from the US on an overnight flight to Tel Aviv, Israel.

Day 2 - Tel Aviv Area

On the second day you will arrive in the afternoon in Tel Aviv. Time permitting, you will visit Joppa, the port where Jonah set sail from as well as where Peter raised Dorcas/Tabitha from the dead. Upon arrival you will settle into accommodations in the Tel Aviv area.

Day 3 - Galilee

On the third day of your trip you will visit Caesarea, where Cornelius household was saved. Then on to Mt. Carmel, where Elijah met with the prophets of Baal. Next to Megiddo to discover the remarkable excavations and water tunnel at this chariot city of King Solomon. This includes a view of the gathering place of the nations at biblical Armageddon. The evening of the third day you will enjoy accommodations in Tiberius or the Galilee region. Note: If time permits, renewal of marriage vows at Cana depending on group.

Day 4 - Southern Galilee

On the fourth day of your tour you will see firsthand the remains of an ancient fishing boat dating back to the time of Jesus. Afterwards, you will sail on the Sea of Galilee, then visit the Mount of Beatitudes, where Jesus preached, "Blessed are the...". Then on to Capernaum, the adopted hometown of Jesus, passing by Peter's house where Jesus blessed his adult ministry and the remains of a synagogue where Jesus preached. You continue in the southern Galilee area, concentrating on Jesus ministry. Baptisms are held on the end of this day for those wishing to be baptized. On the evening of the fourth day you will enjoy accommodations in Tiberius or the Galilee region.

Day 5 - Northern Galilee

On the fifth day of the tour you will travel to Tel Dan, the northernmost city of ancient Israel, passing the place of Jeroboam's golden calf and a city gate from the days of Abraham. Then on to Caesarea Philippi, where Peter made his great confession of faith to Jesus stating "Thou art the Christ, the Messiah, the son of the living God." "Next on to the Golan Heights, to view the route of Paul's life-changing journey on the Damascus Road. Next contemplate modern Israel's struggle with Syria and Lebanon and come to learn and understand the strategic importance of this area. The evening of the fifth day you will enjoy accommodations in Tiberius or the Galilee region.

Day 6 - Dead Sea

On the sixth day you will travel to Beit Shean, one of the ten Roman Decapolis cities. You will explore the extensive Roman city which is seated in the shadow of the hill where the Philistines once displayed the slain bodies of King Saul and his sons. Then drive down to the Jordan valley where you will see prophecy fulfilled as the desert blooms "like a rose". On to the oasis of En Gedi, where King David hid from Saul and where David wrote many of the Psalms. Next check into your hotel at the Dead Sea and enjoy a float. The evening of the sixth day you will enjoy accommodations at hotel located at the Dead Sea.

Mauro Travel & Tours

"Where Travel is with a Purpose"

2255 Glades Road
Suite 324A, PMB 1007,
Boca Raton, FL 33431
Tel: 561-477-8700
Fax: 561-477-8811

Email: regina@maurotravel.com

Day 7 - Up to Jerusalem

On the seventh day, you will take a cable car up the 1,300 foot heights of Masada, King Herod's lavish fortress and palace, where Jewish zealots made a final stand in their revolt against Rome. (Those hardy people can take the 30 to 40 minute walk up Masada's famous "snakepath"). Afterwards, you will make a brief stop at Qumran, view a movie, and learn about the Essenes, who lived in this area. You will then walk through Qumran, and view Cave #4 the site where the Dead Sea Scrolls were found in clay jars by a Bedouin boy in 1946 and 1947. Next you will take a short camel ride, have a biblical lunch, while learning about desert hospitality during the time of Abraham. Then it is up to Jerusalem as we learn the Psalms of ascent as the ancient pilgrims recited as they went up to Jerusalem! Time permitting, you will visit the Israel Museum, view the Dead Sea scrolls, and see a model of Herodian Jerusalem as it looked during the time of Jesus. The evening of the seventh day you will enjoy accommodations at your Jerusalem Hotel.

Day 8 - Jerusalem

On the eighth day you will visit the Mount of Olives, walk the Palm Sunday Road where Jesus made his triumphant entry into Jerusalem. You will have quiet time in the Garden of Gethsemane, where Jesus wept over Jerusalem then walk across the Kidron Valley to the House of the high priest Caiaphas. Then on to Mount Zion and to the area of the Upper room where Jesus had a Seder with his disciples, and where Pentecost was celebrated. After a full day of enjoying these breathtaking sights you will again enjoy accommodations at the Jerusalem Hotel.

Day 9 - Jerusalem

On your ninth day you will visit Bethlehem and the Church of the Nativity, the traditional area of the birthplace of Jesus. Then on to the Shepherd's field, and overlook where Ruth gleaned in the field of Boaz. You will have time to visit a small cave to worship there, maybe even sing a Christmas carol or two. Your morning ends with a brief stop shopping for some olive wood, of which the Bethlehem area is known for. This afternoon you will go to Yad Vashem Holocaust Memorial, and contemplate one of the great tragedies of modern history at Israel's memorial to the six million Jews killed in the Holocaust.

Day 10 - Jerusalem

On your tenth day you will begin at the Southern excavations of the Temple Mount and the Davidson Center where you will view a movie and learn about temple sacrifices. Then you will walk to the southern steps of the Temple Mount and the Hulda gates. Next you will travel to the Western wall to pray at the most sacred site in Jerusalem, the enormous retaining wall of the Temple Mount. Then walk through Western/Rabbi's tunnel to learn the secrets that lie within. On to the Pool of Bethesda, where Jesus healed the sick man and where the group may worship in the remnant of the crusader church of St. Anne. Then on to the Antonia Fortress, the Way of the Cross, Calvary, and end with a communion as you celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus at the Garden Tomb. In the evening you will transfer to the airport and begin the trip home on an evening flight.

Day 11 - Home Sweet Home

On the eleventh day you will arrive home, returning with memories of a lifetime.